

SHORT BIOGRPHY

JASMIN OSMIĆ

Jasmin Osmić was born in 1982 in Tuzla, where he completed both Primary and Secondary Music School, specializing in two disciplines: General Music and Accordion. He began composing during high school and later enrolled at the Sarajevo Music Academy, where he graduated in Composition. In 2011, he completed his postgraduate studies in composition at the same academy.

Jasmin composes solo and chamber music for various instruments, including accordion, piano, violin, flute, clarinet, and others. He has received multiple awards at composition competitions and has showcased his works in concerts across Bosnia and Herzegovina, Croatia, Serbia, Slovenia, Italy, Austria, and Germany. As a composer, he has been featured in elementary school music culture textbooks.

Currently, Jasmin works at the Primary Music School in Tuzla, where, as an accordion teacher, he and his students have won numerous awards. He has attended more than 15 professional seminars with renowned music educators, served as a jury member at accordion competitions, and is a member of the organizing committee of the Lege Artis Tuzla International Championship.
